

I do not agree with relaxing of ownership standards. Already, I am sickened with the lack of diversity of the airwaves. More lax rules would further corrode my voice and my choice in what to listen to. I would rather my radio listening experience not resemble the list of "stations" a direct tv subscription provides. Please refrain from furthering reducing independence in media ownership. More monopolies, such as the hold Cumulus has on the DC airwaves, is not warranted.